

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Marion lives in a rural town in northern Michigan with her husband Lee. Among her numerous interests are writing, history, music, cooking, science, perennial gardening, photography, website design, reading, remodeling/redecorating, and volunteering in her community. The word 'boredom' does not exist in her dictionary. She has a great sense of humor and loves to surround herself with like-minded friends and family.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Karla ran her own pottery and glass studio, creating work for art shows and galleries before being hired full time as an aerial photographer, graphic artist and finally working on GIS special projects for Oakland County, Michigan, for over twenty-eight years. She is now retired and happy to be once again creating and collaborating with other creative people on a daily basis. Karla and her husband Tom, live in southeast Michigan with their best friend China Girl, a twelve-year old Shar Pei/Lab mix.